

Job Opening

Angels of Main Street Community Engagement Manager

Angels of Main Street (AMS) is a nation-wide investment community for anyone who wants to align their money with their values, learn about the power of community investing, and promote a vibrant and sustainable economy. AMS is open to everyone, and there are no minimum wealth or income requirements. Our members have access to comprehensive online trainings led by lawyers, investors, and successful entrepreneurs and receive notice of investment opportunities.

We are looking to hire a community engagement manager to work with our growing community of Angels. Our ideal candidate is passionate about the AMS mission to move investment dollars from Wall Street to Main Street. We have recently started using a new mobile platform called Circles to manage and engage our members.

Primary responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Find creative ways to increase engagement of current Angels by posting in Circles several times a week (post items of interest, announcements, comment on member posts, etc); organizing live in person events; conducting surveys and interviews; and other activities
- Grow our community by spreading the word about Angels at networking events, in online communities, on social media, etc.
- Data collection (survey members periodically and track various data)

Qualifications:

- You are passionate about the mission of Angels and interested in learning about small business finance (experience in this area is a plus)
- Marketing and sales experience is a plus
- You have experience with social media and know how to navigate different platforms
- You are able to use your personal iPhone and computer and have the ability to travel to events (transportation costs are reimbursed)
- You are great at getting other people excited about a cause

Other details:

- Approximately five hours per week
- Pay is $20/hour
- We have a referral partner program. As part of your internship, we hope you will use any and all resources to bring in new members. You will receive a $40 commission for each new member you bring in to the community.

Send cover letter and resume to info@jennykassan.com